William IV Street Serviced Apartments

London

These self-catering studio apartments are located just off Trafalgar Square, placing you within reach of the West End and offering you fantastic links to the rest of London.

The serviced apartments at William IV Street are light and airy, contemporary in design and tastefully styled, with the top floor studio apartment boasting a private roof terrace. Nearby points of interest include the National Gallery, the National Portrait Gallery and the bustling shopping district of Covent Garden.

The Tube stations at Leicester Square and Charing Cross are both within a five-minute walk.

38 William IV Street, Westminster
