Bradfield House

Woking

Bradfield House is part of the New Central development in the heart of Woking town centre. It offers urban living but yet provides quietness expected in a suburban town. The complex benefits with Tesco Express which opens late at night. Other retail units soon to open. An onsite gymnasium for resident use only. Within a short 5 minute walk is the Victoria Theatre, Cinema, shopping centre, restaurants, bars and cafes. Woking railway station is also a short walk with fast non stop service to London's Waterloo station within 30 minutes and Southeast coastal towns within an hour.
