Ludgate Square

London

A modern, galleried serviced apartment on the ground floor of a conversion near to St Paul's Cathedral in the City of London. The property is located in a pedestrian street away from the main hustle and bustle of the City but within a short distance of all of the local amenities. Underground links from the apartment are very good too with either Blackfriars, Mansion House or St Paul's underground stations all being within easy reach.

This is a busy area for business people during the week with Carter Lane, a popular destination for after-work socialising, just around the corner, and at weekends it's also popular with tourists wishing to visit St Paul's Cathedral and the other tourist attractions around the City of London. Very close to the apartment is the new Millennium Bridge which provides great access to the many attractions of the South Bank and to the fantastic Tate Modern art gallery.
